Jessica Lord is a native of Houghton, New York, and grew up in a Christian home. In seventh grade, while on her first mission trip to the Czech Republic with her dad's college basketball team, she felt that God called her to be a part of spreading the gospel to all people everywhere. Since that time she has been on several short-term mission trips to the Czech Republic and one to Russia. Her experiences on these mission trips have confirmed God's call on her life.

In 2009 Global Partners appointed Jessica to intern missionary service to New Zealand. She desires to use the worldwide appeal of sports as a way to connect with people in New Zealand, to build relationships with them, and to lead them into a personal relationship with Christ.
